Challenge • Solution • Benefits

“We have undertaken these courses to give further opportunity for career development and for enhancement of skills for colleagues within supervisory roles. The course has offered us many elements of theory that we can put into practice within the workplace on a day to day basis. The individual projects mean the course has been tailored exclusively to our specific area of business. This has yielded benefits both commercially to the business and from a personal perspective for the staff.”

Adele Payton - Safestyle UK - Studying for the Institute of Leadership and Management Certificate

“I have just been offered a promotion and have requested further training to assist me in fulfilling this role. The part-time evening course has been highly accessible and has allowed me to combine study with demanding work commitments. The course is well planned and delivered at a pace that helps me maximise effectiveness of the modules as I learn. The course has developed my management skills and has given me the confidence to lead an even bigger team.”
