Learning Records Service Privacy Notice

The information you supply is used by the Education and Skills Funding Agency, an executive agency of the Department for Education (DfE), to issue you with a Unique Learner Number (ULN) and to create your Personal Learning Record, as part of the functions of the DfE. For more information about how your information is processed, and to access your Personal Learning Record, please refer to: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/lrs-privacy-notice>

Data Sharing and Funding

How We Use Your Personal Information

This privacy notice is issued by the Education and Skills Funding Agency (ESFA), on behalf of the Secretary of State for the Department of Education (DfE). It is to inform learners how their personal information will be used by the DfE, the ESFA (an executive agency of the DfE) and any successor bodies to these organisations. For the purposes of relevant data protection legislation, the DfE is the data controller for personal data processed by the ESFA.

Your personal information is used by the DfE to exercise its functions and to meet its statutory responsibilities, including under the Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 and to create and maintain a unique learner number (ULN) and a personal learning record (PLR). Your information will be securely destroyed after it is no longer required for these purposes.

Your information may be shared with third parties for education, training, employment and well-being related purposes, including for research. This will only take place where the law allows it and the sharing is in compliance with data protection legislation.

The English European Social Fund (ESF) Managing Authority (or agents acting on its behalf) may contact you in order for them to carry out research and evaluation to inform the effectiveness of training.

Further information about use of and access to your personal data, details of organisations with whom we regularly share data, information about how long we retain your data, and how to change your consent to being contacted, please visit:

Learning Agreement

This agreement is between the College and you, the learner. It is supported by documents issued in connection with the provision of College services.

Initial Advice and Guidance

I confirm that, as part of initial advice and guidance, enrolment and induction activities, I know:

- My primary learning goals and programme of study
- Entry requirements for this programme of study
- What my programme of study involves, including any fees to be paid and additional costs for essential equipment, books and visits etc.
- How to request financial support, including, Bursary payment, Free College Meals, etc, which I may be entitled to, subject to eligibility and a means tested assessment
- How to request Learning Support which may be available to me

Rules, Regulations and Codes of Conduct

I agree:

- To observe the rules and regulations of the College, as set out in the Positive Behaviour Policy & Student Disciplinary Procedure and the Student Handbook.
- That I am responsible for the payment of the course fees, where applicable, and that the course fees remain payable even if I withdraw from the course.
- I understand that examination/registration fees may be payable in addition to course fees.
- To my photograph being taken, stored and used for my college ID Card and College MIS reports.

I understand:

- If I fail to attend an examination for which I have been entered and I am unable to provide satisfactory reasons for non-attendance, I may be charged the full awarding body exam/registration fee.
- If I have been granted a full or partial Advanced Learner Loan, I am still liable for the balance of any course fees not covered by my loan.
- That the College's policy is not to provide refund of course fees, except in exceptional circumstances, if I withdraw after starting the course.
- That if I withdraw after starting the course I will be liable to the College for any part of the course fee not received by the College from the Student Loans Company. If fees are not paid in full within the notice period or as agreed, the outstanding debt will be referred to the College's debt collection agency. A debt recovery administration charge of 12% may also be added to the outstanding debt to cover the debt collection costs.
- That the College reserves the right to change tutors, reschedule, cancel, close or combine courses if necessary.
- That I will be withdrawn from my programme of study if my absence exceeds more than 4 consecutive weeks without a satisfactory explanation.
- That I must disclose unspent and spent criminal convictions on those programme of study where completing the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) application form is required. Further to this, if I obtain a criminal conviction I must disclose this information to my Course Coordinator, Head of Sector or Student Services.
- That, if my programme is funded by the employer, they will be provided with details relating to my progress, attendance or any other issues relating to my programme of study.

Full Time and Apprenticeship programmes

I understand that if I am studying on a full time course or on an apprenticeship programme and living with my parents/carer:

- That the College will share with them information on my progress, attendance and any other issues which might affect my programme of study, including, safeguarding, well being, etc.
- That the College will only share relevant information with the Local Authority, other statutory organisations and the Connexions Service to support progress, plan next steps or deal with safeguarding concerns.

General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679 ("GDPR") and the Data Protection Act 2018
