WELCOME TO SHIPLEY COLLEGE

Share your passion for ceramics at Shipleigh College!

As a lifestyle and leisure course lecturer at Shipleigh, you'll get the opportunity to help adult students develop their pottery skills.

As a ceramics industry professional, your real-world experiences and demonstrable passion for your craft will bring your sessions to life, whilst your focus on each student's needs will help them achieve real progress and build confidence.

Our courses are often clearly marked as 'beginner/introduction' or 'intermediate/advanced' which will help you to plan how you will pitch your sessions, whilst your allocated mentor will help you manage your entry into your new, part-time career. These courses do not have formal exams or assessments, and are often filled with students wanting to try something new - either as a hobby or as a first-step towards a more formal qualification.

We welcome applications from both experienced teachers and those looking to take their first steps into the profession, with full training and support available.

If you feel excited by the opportunity to help others have fun whilst they develop their ceramic skills, within a culture of excellence and care then please review the essential and highly desirable criteria and consider applying for this role.

Message from the Principal

ShIPLEY College is a wonderful place to start (or to continue) your career and we are delighted that you are considering completing an application for a post with us.

ShIPLEY College is a small, friendly place that really cares about every person that comes through the door and we pride ourselves on giving every student the individual support they deserve.

Situated in the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Saltaire, it is a great place to study and easy to get to by bus, train and car.

Our practical, vocational and work-related courses include Apprenticeships, full-time and part-time courses across a range of Departments. I am delighted that our Student Survey results and employer feedback continue to be extremely positive as we provide a fantastic learning environment for all our students.

We have a fabulous team of colleagues who give up an extraordinary amount of time to support their students and their fellow members of staff. The dedication and attention to quality they exhibit is what makes our College so successful. I am proud of the commitment and hard work of all the college's staff, students and governors and pleased that this has been recognised by Ofsted in our latest inspection.

If you meet the criteria of the post advertised and feel that you would enjoy working here, we hope you will make an application to join us.

Diana Bird
Principal
